

I am furious about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Sinclair's owner is a big contributor to the Bush campaign. You at the FCC have an obligation to prevent the hijacking of the public airways.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead he is using the airways to unduly effect the outcome of the election. What are you going to do about this?

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
